Kheper, Inc. Expands Holiday Line to Include He Sees You When You're Drinking Game

Kheper, Inc. is excited to announce that they are expanding their line of holiday items for Christmas to include a new dice game, He Sees You When You're Drinking.

He Sees You When You're Drinking is a Christmas-themed drinking game for 2 or more players. Some rolls are drink assignments, others are gestures or contests, such as best Santa laugh, worst gift story, or dirtiest joke. It's fast paced and provides hours of holiday fun!

"We were so amazed at how well our expanded line of holiday games had performed last year that we had to expand the line even further." Explains CEO Brian Pellham. "They are fun and easy stocking stuffers that also help you get through your holiday season with a little more holiday cheer. Why should the Christmas tree be the only thing lit up this year?!"
